STORY OF MAN LET DOWN THRO' ROOF

FOUR ATTRIBUTES NECESSARY TO SUCCESS

Evangelist Delivers Stirring Sermon to Large Crowd on "Presbyterian Night"— Tells Professing Christians Some Plain Truths.

Several inspiring, delightful songs were rendered by the choir and audience in the service which preceded last night's sermon at the tent on King street. Rev. J. L. Allison of the Second Presbyterian Church led in prayer, Prof. Cole sang, "Just a little help from You", after which Evangelist Smith spoke from words found in the second chapter of St. Mark, concerning the story of the man who was let down through the roof and healed by Jesus. Among other things he said:

"There are two great key-notes in Christ's gospel which strike out the loudest. They are, 'Come unto me all ye that labor and I will give you rest,' and 'Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel, to every creature,' One is as important as the other, but I want to especially emphasize the second one, tonight. This command is not only for the clergy but for the pew as well.

"Last year there were over 7,500 churches in America that had not one added to their membership. You try to blame the preacher but I blame the indifferent crowd in the pew. We have a large crowd in the church today who know nothing of Christ except what some preacher has told them. What we need is an experimental knowledge of the Christ we confess. We may have the finest fishing tackle that we can get, but what good will it do if we never go fishing. How many people have you spoken to about Christ during the last year? I won't say during the last month nor embarass you by asking you to answer, yet you can talk about everything under the sun except Christ.

"This is the story of a man who had friends who cared for him and were interested in his healing.

"That was a wonderful service they had that day. They advertised it. Advertising plays an important part in all our business today. Great sums of money are being paid annually for advertising. Yet when we want to advertise a risen Christ, and when we realize that men are lost with Him, we hang out a little board which says 'Services, Sunday, 10:30 a. m. 7:30 p. m. and cold lunch on Wednesday night.' In Capernaum it was noised abroad that Jesus was in the house. They crowded and thronged Him wherever He went and they have been doing so for 2000 years. And when it is known that you have Christ's men in your pulpit and pews, you will have no trouble in packing your church.

"I have often wondered what kind of men these were who carried this man to Jesus and in imagination I have named the first one Mr. Love. You can't do anything without love. The reason so many of us have such a hard time in our church work is because we do not love it, but do it from a sense of duty. The world is looking at Christ through us. Do we make the world love Him?

"The man at the second corner I have called Mr. Faith, a great fellow to have. Some folks say they will not accept anything they cannot reason out. Sir, you are not consistent. You cannot explain the first principles of life. You cannot explain these lights nor the seat you are sitting on. Our whole marriage system is built on faith — and some of you had to have a whole lot. Our great postal system is built on faith. Faith is like the trolley pole on the street car. Through it the power comes down from the wire, through the controller, into the motor and the car moves. By faith we receive power from God to propel us in our Christian life.

"I think the man at the third corner was Mr. Persistence. We don't have many in our churches today, usually the President of the Ladies Aid. We need persistency to succeed. Sir George Williams, one of the greatest religious workers the world has ever known, was won over to God by the efforts of a young girl. The girl asked Sir George to come to her prayer meetings and he promised. He kept on promising but never came, until at the end of nine months of untiring persistence she finally won him over and he came to the prayer meeting. And the next day he gave his heart to God and after kneeling at the feet of Queen Victoria went out in the world on his great mission.

"The last man I have called Mr. Ingenuity. The others had tried to get through the crowd to Jesus, but could not. Mr. Ingenuity said, 'What's the matter with the roof?' He tried something new.

"Some of you folks don't like some things about these services. You say the singing was fine but— Always look out for what comes after the but. You have ruined many lives by what followed the but.

"Be willing to get out of the rut and try something new. Let Christ have the right of way and He will never do anything vulgar or sensational. Go in the same old rut, year in and year out, and you will not accomplish more than you have. Let's take our Love, our Faith, our Persistence and our Ingenuity and devote them to Christ and save this old town."

During the course of his sermon Mr. Smith quoted very effectively the poem by Paul Lawrence Dunbar:

The Lord had a job for me
But I had so much to do
I said 'you get someone else
Or wait till I get through.
I didn't know how the Lord came out,
But he seemed to get along—
But I felt kind a sneakin' like,
Knowin' I'd done God wrong.
One day I needed the Lord—
Needed him myself, right away,
But He never answered at all
And I could hear him say down in my accusin' heart
'Nigger, I'se got too much to do,
You get somebody else or
Wait till I get through.
Now when the Lord has a job for me,
I drop what I has on hand
And does the good Lord's work,
And my affairs can run along
Or wait till I get through.
Nobody else can do the job
That God's marked out for you.

Gypsy Smith, Jr.. Epigrams

The reason we don't talk God is because we don't know him.

We go to church on Sunday morning and roll up the whites of our eyes and call that religion. Nothing doing.

What kind of an interpretation of Christ are folks getting from us who call ourselves christians?

It takes a big man to apologize.

Many are kept out of the church because they see so lit tle real christianity in it.

Children's Meeting Yesterday.

Between five and six hundred children attended the meeting held at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. "Willie Jones" was present and taught a splendid lesson in obedience. His disappearance and re-appearance was quite a mystery. Several other object lessons were given, including one of a fan which fell to pieces and became whole again, depending on which way it was opened. It taught that there was a right and wrong way for people to live. There was spirited singing and whistling.

Tomorrow afternoon another children's meeting will be held at 3 o'clock.

Episcopalians Take Notice

SHOT BY BURGLAR.

C. D. Wayne Seriously Wounded While Grappling With Intruder in His Atlanta Home

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 8.—C. D. Wayne, superintendent of the Southeastern Passenger Association, was shot and seriously wounded early yesterday when, unarmed, he grappled with a burglar whom he discovered in his bedroom at his home here. He probably will recover.

Wayne had thrown the burglar to the floor and was choking him, when the intruder fired three times. One shot struck Wayne in the groin, another went through his left arm and a third struck him over the right eye, but glanced off. He continued the struggle after being wounded, but burning powder from the discharge of the pistol set fire to his night clothes and compelled him to stop.

When his father was disabled, William Wayne, eleven years old, attacked the man. He pushed the boy away and fled.

Neighbors, aroused by shots, trailed the intruder several hundred feet by blood spots. It is believed the shot which went through Wayne's arm hit the burglar.

NEGRO ASSAULTS WOMAN

Annapolis, Md., Sept. 8J—Police officials of the city and county are searching for William Dove, a negro, who, it is alleged, Wednesday afternoon attacked Mrs. Annie Gregory, 45 years old, wife of Mr. Harvey Gregory, caretaker of buildings and grounds at St. John's College. The negro, who has been employed about the college, made the attack in the yard of Mrs. Gregory's home on the colloge campus.

Mrs. Gregory asked Dove to chop some wood and he went to the woodshed. He pretended the axe was not there, and Mrs. Gregory went to hunt for it. As soon as she entered the shed, Dove, it is alleged struck her over the head with a stick. Mrs. Gregory struggled with her assailant, but he beat her into unconsciousness.

Frightened by the appearance of the victim's grandchild, Gregory Colburn, 9 years old, the negro ran. He is thought to be somewhere in the upper part of the county. The police believe the negro contemplated criminal assault.

Emperor William, according to a French correspondent at the front is watching in person the fierce struggle that is going on for the possession of Combles.

WHEN PEACE IS SIGNED

Treaties are Written in Parallel Columns in the Various Languages

When the war comes to an end, a treaty of peace will be signed, sealed and delivered, as between the various belligerents.

This will be a most imposing document, written by hand throughout, sealed with many seals and bound about with green silk ribbon. Following the usual custom, each copy will begin with the words, "In the Name of the Most Holy and Undivided Trinity." Should, however, Turkey be one of the signatory powers, as seems probable, the formula will be altered to "In the name of Allah, the Almighty God." in the copy allotted to her.

At least as many original copies as there are signatory powers will be signed and sealed, while several certified copies will be signed, but not sealed, for the sake of convenience. The original copies will be securely locked up in the state archives of the different countries; the certified copies will be used for printing from and for reference.

Peace treaties are not written straight across the page or pages, like ordinary documents. They are written in parallel columns, one in English, the next in French, the next in Italian, German, Russian and so on, according to the number of languages spoken by the peoples of the signatory powers. The text of each of these columns is an exact translation of the text of all the other columns, and the utmost pains is taken in the selection of words that will convey identical shades of meaning.

The monarchs of the signatory powers don't affix their signatures or seals to the peace treaties entered into by them. This important formality is carried out by specially accredited peace commissioners, each of whom uses his own personal private seal, the impression being in red wax.

VALUABLE HORSE LOST.

Washington Newspaper Man Offers Reward for Recovery of Animal

A member of the editorial staff of the Washington Times reported to the police of this city this morning the loss of a valuable horse, which was stolen from the pasture of Nathaniel Luttrell at Falls Church, Tuesday night, where the newspaper man boarded the animal. A reward of $25 has been offered for its return.

It is the belief that the horse was brought to Alexandria with intentions in the mind of the thieves of shipping it to Norfolk, and it is possible that information leading to the tracing of its whereabouts will be discovered in a few days.

The missing horse was of the jumping type, fifteen hands and two inches high. It was a five-year old bright sorrel in color, with clipped mane, and slight enlargement of the left front knee. A small spot also marks the left front foot.

Anyone having any knowledge at all of whereabouts, past or present, of the horse, are requested to communicate with this office or the police.

MR. GLASS SPEAKS.

Accuse G. O. P. of Trying to Steal Credit for New Banking System

Washington, Sept., 8.—Representative Carter Glass, "legislative father," of the Federal reserve act, in speech in the House yesterday, lashed Candidate Hughes, Senators Curtis and Smoot and Representative Mondell, Republicans for seeking to rob the Democratic party of the credit of drafting the nation's new banking act. Mr. Glass declared it was untrue that the Aldrich National Monetary Commission blazed the way and furnished the pattern for the reserve act.

SEES FATHER'S BLOOD.

Baltimore, Sept., 8 — His small son's curiosity over the "red water" that trickled into the backyard from a waste pipe that ran from the bathroom, gave William Barum's family the first clue that he had committed suicide yesterday morning. The boy, playing in the back yard of the Baum home, 238 south Clinton street, called to his mother, "Oh, mamma, look at the red water." His mother looked and became alarmed. Her husband had been unusually despondent the night before.

She found him in the bathroom sprawled across the bathtub with a razor beside him and a long gash in his throat.

RUSSIANS SET HALICZ ON FIRE

Muscovites Bombarding Southern Gate to Lemberg

RAILWAY IS SEIZED

5,600 Prisoners Taken in This Section, Including 3,000 Germans and 700 Turks

London, Sept. 8—A Bucharest dispatch to the Times today reported that the Roumanians have occupied Orsova, in the Danube, at the "Iron Gate" to Hungary.

The occupation of Orsoba has been reported from several sources recently, but the reports thus far have not been confirmed by the Roumanian war office.

Petrograd, Sept. 8—The Russians are bombarding the Galacian town of Halicz, about 60 miles southeast of Lemberg, says the Russian official report. The town is in flames. The Russian statement adds that Russian troops have occupied the railway lines between Halicz and Semikovitze and Wodniki.

In the fighting in Eastern Galicia Wednesday the announcement says, the Russians took 5,600 more prisoners.

On the northern part of the front Russian troops crossed the Dvina in small force and captured part of a German position.

Berlin, Sept. 8—After heavy fighting with the Russians in the sector southeast of Lemberg, Eastern Galicia, the Germans have fallen back in the sector between the Zlota Lipa and Dniester rivers, the War Office announced today. Russian attacks near Brzezany, on the Zlota Lipa, southeast of Lemberg, were unsuccessful.

Vienna, Sept' 8—An official announcement issued at the Austro-Hungarian headquarters states that Austrian troops have retreated before the Russians in the region between the Zlota Lipa and Dniester rivers, in Galicia. The announcement says:

"In connection with the fighting described Wednesday between the Zlota Lipa and the Dniester our troops have been removed to prepared positions."

CAR STRIKE A FAILURE

President Shonts Says 9,000 Interborough Men Stayed. Wages of Loyal Men Raised

New York, Sept. 8—The strike on the lines of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company and the New York Railways Company is a flat failure so far.

The subway and elevated lines of the Interborough have been running on normal schedule ever since the strike order went out, and without the employment of strike-breakers. The surface lines of the New York Railways Companyl, the so-called "green-car lines," which went out in "sympathy" with the Interborough men, were seriously crippled at first, but so early as 10 o'clock this morning the company reported 179 cars in operation, 25 per cent of the normal for that hour, with the service improving steadily.

Evidences of thorough organization to meet the emergency were conspicuous. Company attaches at the telephone receivers were receiving, almost momentarily, bulletins and "flashes" from the company's various scouts posted at all strategic points throughout the city and messengers were carrying these, neartly typed in most instances, to the higher executives. The scene was suggestive of a division headquarters during the progress of an important action in the field. At fixed intervals throughout the day and night either Mr. Shonts or some of his immediate associates met the newspaper reporters and outlined to them the situation as the corporation saw it.

Mr. Shonts authorized the following statement:

"The Interborough men have been loyal to their agreement with the company, as we believed they would be. More than 9,000 of them, who had signed our individual working contracts, have remained at work."

FRENCH SHIFT ATTACK TO FRONT

Capture Mile of German First-Line Trenches At Verdun

STOP COUNTER-ATTACK

Teuton Forces Dispersed in Attempt to Regain Hospital Farm—Hand-to-Hand Fighting.

Paris, Sept. 8—The French have captured the German first line trenches over a front of one mile on the Verdun front, the War Office announces.

The breach in the German line was effected on the front northeast of Verdun, between the Vaux-Chapitre region and the town of Chenois. The French took 280 prisoners.

The French statement adds that a powerful effort made by German troops to dislodge the French from Hospital farm, on the Somme front, was without success and that the Germans were dispersed with heavy losses.

The French artillery fire south of the Somme has prevented the Germans from making a counter-attack, according to the night communication. Some additional progress for the French troops is recorded.

The French aerial service took an active part in the recent actions on the Somme front. In air fights Wednesday two German machines were brought down by French pilots and four other German aeroplanes were forced to descend in damaged condition.

London, Sept. 8—A German attempt to regain possession of Leuze wood, on the Somme front Wednesday night led to hand-to-hand fighting, with the British. The War Office announces that the Germans were beaten back.

Berlin, Sept. 8—Repeated attacks were made Wednesday and Wednesday night by the French and British along the Somme front. The official announcement says Vermandovillers was entered but that assaults at other points were repulsed.

"The battle of the Somme continues and fighting is taking place on the whole line," the announcement says. "The British continue to make vain attacks with especial stubbornness near Ginchy. The French again began to charge on their extensive attacking front, but before the northern portion of our line the attack broke down completely. In the Berny-Deniecourt sector and on both sides of Chaulnes initial advantages were again wrested from the enemy as a result of a speedy counter attack. The attackers have set foot in Vermandovillers.

"East of the Meuse (Verdun) front repeated French attack against Thiaumont work and the wooded heights were repulsed."

"MINISTER" WALKING SALOON.

Wellsburg, W. Va., Sept., 8. — The mystery of the popularity of "Rev." William Pierce, a mulatto, aged 65, about whom men flocked at Windsor the new town just below this city, has been solved and Pierce is a prisoner in the county jail here.

Pierce affected a ministerial garb, carried a neat satchel similar to that used by clergymen for carrying books and seemed to have a magnetic personality that drew all men to him.

Deputy Sheriff Bert Applegate solved the mystery. He found the "minister" was really a peripatetic saloon, dispensing drinks of many varieties. Besides an assortment in the satchel, Pierce had a bottle in each of his pockets. He has been doing a great business among the men engaged in building the big industrial plants at Windsor. He says his home was in Washington.

FIRE IN THE FIRST WARD

Burning Box Car Brings Out Auto Truck, Hook and Ladder and Many People

It was nearing midnight last night when an alarm of fire was sounded and simultaneously the southeastern heavens became party illuminated. The new auto truck, sounding its screeching whistle, started south on Fairfax street, followed closely by the Hook and Ladder truck and several automobiles. Some of the latter, as is usual, ran at a high rate of speed. Hundreds of persons, male and fmale, some of whom had hastily dressed, supposing they were to witness exciting scenes at the burning of some huge structure, were soon pressing on in the wake. When the department reached the intersection of Wilkes and Lee streets together with the crowd which had followed a box car near the mouth of the tunnel was found to be burning —only this and nothing more. The blaze was speedily extinguished, not however, before the roof of the car had been virtually destroyed. The fire is believed to have been caused by an incendiary.

An alarm of fire was sounded shorty before seven o'clock this morning. It was caused by the explosion of an oil stove in house No. 317 Duke street. A bed was partially consumed before the blaze was extinguished.

WOULD DROP WORD "OBEY"

Episcopal Commission Also Want Ten Commandments Changed

The commission of seven bisops seven pastors and seven laymen of the Protestant Episcopal church, appointed to revise the ritual, has determined at a meeting in Chicago to oliminate the word "obey" from the marriage ceremony.

The commission will report to the General Convention of the church at St. Louis Oct. 11.

Radical changes are proposed in the Ten Commandments, the burial and baptismal services and in arrangements of various prayers.

The Tenth Commandment, as an example, will be shortened to "Thou shalt not covet anything that is thy neighbor's," if the commission's report is adopted.

RETURNS FOR WHIPPING

Milledgeville, Ga., Sept. 8—A novel incident occurred on the street of Milledgevlle recently. A tall, portly gentleman, the picture of health and vigor, came up to Prof. O. M. Cone, of the Georgia Military College faculty. The stranger carried a long hickory switch in his hand. He asked: "Is this Prof. Cone?" Being answered in the affirmative, he said:

"My name, sir, is John Leaman. Forty years ago, when you were teaching in the old field school at Island Creek, in Hancock county, my parents, then living in Florida, sent me up to your school. One day you decided that a good whipping was just what I needed to set me right, and you sent me out to get the switch. You may remember, sir, that I never came back. I saw my chance to escape, and I ran away. This is the first time I have seen you since that day. But I have never felt right about the way I did, and I have come back now all the way from my home, in Brunswick, to take my whipping. Here is your switch."

Of course, Prof. Cone agreed in the circumstances to let bygones be bygones, and he and his former pupil shook hands and had a good laugh together.

BOARD ELECTS TEACHER

Miss Eva Cowling Will Take The Place of Miss Josephine Wayte, Resigned.

The regular monthly meeting of the City School Board was held last night. There were present Chairman Bradshaw and Messrs. Kirk, Cox, Perry, Monroe, Pierce, Howard, Colvin, Lunt, Anderson, Moore and Thompson.

Mr. Perry, of the committee on schoolhouses and furniture, announced that the old Howell building, in the Washington School grounds, had been placed in proper cordition for housing the boys in the lower grades; also that other school buildings were now ready for occupancy.

Mr. Cox, of the finance committee, stated that the board had disbursed $40,266.61 during the school year ending June 1, 1916, and that there was at that time a balance of $965.87 to the credit of the board.

The election of a teacher to take the place of Miss Josephine Wayte of Alexandria county, who was elected at the July meeting, but who subsequently declined to serve was held.

Three candidates for the position were placed in nomination—Miss Cora Pulman, of Alexandria, Miss Mary Douglass, of Aldie, Loudoun county, and Miss Eva Cowling, of Alexandria.

The first ballot resulted as follows: Miss Cowling, 5; Miss Douglass, 4; Miss Pulman, 3. The second ballot showed no change, and Miss Pulman who had received the lowest vote, was dropped.

The second ballot resulted in the election of Miss Cowling as follows: Miss Cowling, 8; Miss Douglass, 4.

Miss Cowling's salary was fixed at $500 a year.

Miss Pulman was elected a substitute teacher, as was also Miss Vivian A. Burkett,

S. G. Blanton and C. A. Burrus teachers, sent communications to the board asking increases in their salaries.

The clerk was directed to notify the petitioners that their salaries were fixed when they were elected and signified their willingness to serve at the figures then sited; hence no action would be taken at present looking to the revision of salaries.

The board subsequently adjourned

Liable to be Conscripted any Time For Service on Roads of the State

Angel visits are said to be few and far between, so are those of state guards to jails for recruits for the public roads. Occasionally, however, one bobs up serenely and there is anxiety in the lockup, as was the case yesterday when one of this class of terrors to evil doers knocked for admittance at the castle presided over by Sergeant Cox and his deputy, William Candler. This unwelcome visitor sized up the inmates who had been smoking, sleeping, playing cards and indulging in other time-killing devices, and after having selected ten desirables, ordered them to pack up and fall in. Five of the elect were white and five colored. There was no declining the invitation. The fiat of the guard was final—"Come along!" was the mandate, from which there was no appeal.

This select number comprised certain laggards in the march of life who had been rounded up by the police during the summer months.

The city jail always contains more or less of this class. Their number generally increases as cold weather draws near. They are fed by the city, and about all they are compelled to do is to kill time. At the advent of spring, their terms having expired, they scatter in different directions, sleep about wharves and manage to eke out an existence until wintry blasts again approach when they once more become guests of the city.

The unexpected appearance of the guard may prove a deterrent to individuals who spend so much of their time in jail as they are liable to become wielders of picks or shovels.

PERMITS TO CHILDREN

Nearly Sixteen Hundred Issued Up to Yesterday.

Harrie White, acting for Harry D. Kirk, clerk of the city school board, concluded his work yesterday afternoon of issuing permits to white children living east of Hooff's run to attend the public schools of the city and this morning and today issued same to white pupils west of Hooff's run at the Armory hall. 1,596 permits had been issued up to the closing hour yesterday, and all children who have obtained permits, after showing vaccination and clean bill of health, have been registered in the different grammar and high school grades in the various buildings under the direction of Superintendent William H. Sweeney.

Tomorrow permits will be issued to colored children.

ANOTHER YEAR OF WARFARE

Only the other day a German general, retired, but still regarded as able fighting, material, was interviewed by an American correspondent, to whom he confided that the German entrenchments in the Somme region were 'absolutely impregnable." The Richmond Journal observes that since that time the French alone have advanced along a fifteen-mile front to a depth of from five to ten miles, over ground that was defended by ample forces and strengthened with device of modern warfare. Co-operating at the northern end the British have made similar progress until now practically the entire second line of fortifications thrown up by the Germans is in possession of the allies. The courage of the French is superb and the science of their directing generals equally admirable. There is no wastage of human material, no glut of "cannon fodder," but a carefully planned advance in which the maximum of accomplishment is attained at a minimum of sacrifice. To say that the French offensive in the west has failed, as the general previously referred to asserted, is to ignore the most potent of evidence to the contrary. Great Britain has always declared that it would be a matter of "inching along," holding on to what was gained and never letting go. That seems to hit it off precisely. The Germans appear to have lost their "pep," they no longer are self-assertive. Verdun is a failure. Brusiloff continues to harass the Teutons by his unexpected attacks, in which he is invariably successful, and Lemberg is likely to fall even before Kovel. On the Caucasus front Grand Duke Nicholas is steadily engaging the Turks whose position is in constant jeopardy. Roumania is reported to be advancing cautiously in Transylvania. Greece is on the verge of joining the entente allies and Italy continues to shell the Austrians with great pertinacity on the Trentino front. That the war will last another year is fairly certain. It will require all of that to drive the Germans out of France and out of Belgium. Russia and Roumania will probably take care of Bulgaria between them, proceeding then to Turkey and later invading Hungary. It is a program of possibilities which the preponderance of men and munitions and the unity of determination render not at all unreasonable.

THE NEW ISSUE.

Candidate Hughes was in Nashville on Labor day and had accepted an invitation to speak before the labor organizations, but when it was explained to him that he could not give them a political speech he declined to speak at all.

Groping around for some issues to present to the public as a reason for not re-electing Mr. Wilson, the Republican leaders, including the 100 per cent candidate, have taken the extraordinary step of picking up an issue with organized labor. As a contemporary suggests, we wish them joy of it. Of course, their situation is desperate; allowance must be made for that. Mr. Hughes can't talk about the Lusitania, because the German-American Alliance is supporting him. There is not much he can say about Mexico, because we have got past the danger point and a commission of three learned gentlemen from each nation is now engaged in smoothing out all the difficulties. The tariff doesn't interest many people.

Mr. Hughes has nothing to promise and nothing to urge. He has nothing to say except to denounce the President for whatever he does and refuses to do. He picks up a paper and sees that the President urges Congress to compel the railroads to yield to the demands of the employees, so he climbs up on the platform and denounces the President for his sacrifice of principle. If the newspaper had told him that the President refused to interfere, and the strike had been ordered, he would have denounced the President for doing nothing to avert a great calamity.

A fire breaks out in a house and a man grabs a demijohn of wine and pours it on. The wine was rather expensive, but the house is saved. Mr. Hughes says you ought not to sacrifice wine that way; it would be wiser to pipe water from a spring a mile away, and then you would have water to extinguish the flames with. Very wise, and very obvious, and very useless. What was the man to do? The fire was starting, and the wine was at hand, and there was no water within a mile. The sage Hughes says that anything can be settled by arbitration, but the Brotherhood leaders had refused to arbitrate, and it was the eight-hour law or a strike. Perhaps Mr. Wilson did not decide aright, but Mr. Hughes does not tell us what he would have done; all he is capable of is berating Mr. Wilson for throwing away the wine.

WAVING THE "BLOODY SHIRT"

That the Republicans attach unusual importance to the result of the election in Maine and are uneasy as to the outcome is shown by the fact that they have sent their Presidential candidate there to stump the State in addition to the army of distinguished speakers who have been touring the Commonwealth for weeks in the effort to wake up the Republican voters. If the situation were satisfactory from the Republican standpoint, all these political reserves would not have been rushed there. The fact is that Maine, once rock-ribbed in its Republicanism, has become debatable ground of late years, and this year seems to be regarded as more than ever in doubt, if we are to judge by the desperate canvass which has been made by the Republican managers.

We say "desperate" because nothing but desperation would seem to explain fully the kind of canvass that has been made at that point. The only other explanation is absolute political unscrupulousness and indifference to considerations that should appeal to patriotic Americans.

No one can read this speech of Senator Lodge without being struck by its absolute unfairness and by its evident purpose to create sectional animosity.

As the Baltimore Sun says, we thus return to the "bloody shirt" issue the worst feature of the Republican campaign, and it is peculiarly inconsistent and offensive at a time when Mr. Roosevelt and his close friend Mr. Lodge are making Americanism one of their chief cards. Why denounce German Hyphens when Mr. Lodge talks like a Hyphen himself and allows his Americanism to go no farther than Mason and Dixon's line? We do not know what effect this sort of oratory will have in Maine but it is likely to have a very decided effect in Virginia.

RECKLESS AUTOISTS.

(Richmond Times-Dispatch)

Day by day the menace of reckless automobile driving increases; day by day speeders and drunken motorists grow bolder; day by day the lives of men, women and children are placed in greater jeopardy by criminals in charge of death-dealing machines. Where is the fault, and where lies the remedy? The time has come to speak plainly. Both fault and remedy are at the door of, and in the hands of, the City Council and the Police Justice.

By its refusal to provide any form of personal license, except to jitney operators, Council has virtually turned loose on the public a horde of untrained, incompetent and, in many cases, reckless automobile operators, who are beyond the control of the police, because there is no ordinance governing them. After they have committed a specific act of recklessness, they are subject to punishment, provided they are caught, but even there the punishment fails. And this failure is chiefly attributable to the Police Justice.

Justice Crothchfield, ignoring the warning of the day, flatly refuses to impose jail sentences on these culprits, even in cases where they are convicted not only of recklessness, but of drunken recklessness. As has been explained time and again, the revocation-of-license threat is merely laughable. This, then, is the situation. Citizens may complain, write to the police, protest in the press. But until the public succeeds in opening the eyes of the Council and the Police Justice, there is no hope of lessening, much less of averting, this constantly growing danger.

NEWS OF THE DAY

"The Germans will have begun to squeal by November and the war will end by March." This statement was made in Paris today by H. G. Wells, the famous British writer, who has just returned from the French and Italian fronts.

The exploring ship George B. Cluett bearing the Crocker Land expedition headed by Donald B. McMillan, entered Battle Harbor, Labrador, yesterday. Donald B. McMillan, the Atric, explorer, left New York July 2, 1913, in search of Crocker Land.

The treaty providing for the purchase from Denmark of the Danish West Indies for $25,000,000 was ratified by the Senate last night. There was no roll call, and less than half a dozen senators, including Senator Morris, Jones, and Clapp, voted against it.

Important bills passed by the Sixty-fourth Congress since last December, include the eight-hour law, preparedness, rural credits, Phillipines, child labor, vocational training, workmen's compensation, shipping, good roads, emergency revenue and rivers and harbors.

Congress adjourned finally for the session at 10 o'clock this morning, after the final adoption of the revenue bill and after the President who went to the Capitol for the purpose, had signed all the remaining bills passed during this session.

John Farrow, 35 years old a farm hand who was employed on the country place of Richard V. Lindabury, near Bernardsville, N. J., was gored to death by a bull yesterday. Farrow was caught in a lot by the bull and before he could reach the fence the bull knocked him down.

The Senate yesterday passed the so-called "fake" auction bill, the purpose of which is to break up the many auction sales in Washington. The House passed the same bill some time ago. It is charged that not only Washingtonians, but thousands of visitors to the national capital are victims of the fake auction sales in the District of Coumbia.

Orders were issued by the War Department yesterday for the discharge from Federal service as soon as practicable of twelve national guard regiments comprising about 15,000 men, recently withdrawn to their home States from the Mexican border, and a number of smaller organizations of some 1,500 college and university students.

A plot to blow up the subway in New York, at 7 o'clock this morning was reported to police last night. The plotters, it was said, intended to plant three bombs. One was to be exploded in the tube beneath the East River. As a result every entrance to the subway and every platform is guarded by uniformed and plain clothes policemen. The police have instruction to examine every bundle brought into the subway.

Under pressure from the State Department the conference committee on the revenue bill yesterday struck out the Chamberlain and the Phelan amendments by which retaliation against the British blacklisting policy could have been made effective. As the law stands, the Canadian government may continue to monopolize the fish industry of the Northern Pacific. The English government may continue its blacklisting policy against American firms, while British houses in this country may continue their business unhindered by any restrictions.

Earl S. Folkes, aged 25 years, a machinist, of Hagerstown, Md., died of injuries received Wednesday night when an automoblie in which he and John Nunamaker, Roy Mowen and Harry Hardy were riding, turned turtle on the Funkstown turnpike. In order to avoid colliding with a wagon Nunamaker drove his car to the side of the road. The machine swerved and toppled over an embankment. Nunamaker landed under the automobile and was cut and bruised, while Folkes was caught under the side of the car, the door resting across his abdomen. Mowen and Hardy were thrown into a field.

Sixteen alleged members of the mob which stormed the Allen county jail at Lima, Ohio last week in an attempt to lynch Charles Daniels, a negro and tortured Sheriff Eley until he told where the prisoner was held were indicted yesterday. The list includes several business men. Thirteen of the 16 have been arrested and are in the county jail under guard of 100 policemen and deputy sheriffs. It is expected that 100 indictments will be returned. "Attacking an official for the purpose of lynching" is the charge on those already returned. Bond in each case was fixed at $1,500.

Dr. H. G. Huffman, oculist and advocate of fasting as a nature cure, died in Youngstown, Ohio, yesterday a victim of his belief, after going without food for sixty-nine days. Huffman began his fatal fasting June 30, at his open-air camp on the Grand River, near Geneva. After a foodless period of forty days he attempted to eat, but his stomach refused to accept nourishment, and he resumed fasting. Last Saturday, after three more unsuccessful attempts to eat, the oculist became delirious. Fasting was the weapon which the oculist thought he was fighting death. Two years ago doctors told him he had not long to live. He went to his camp and fasted forty-seven days, returning to his home stronger and greatly improved. Last year he fasted thirty days.

TANLAC MADE ME A LOT BETTER.

Mrs. R. B. Taylor Glad to Recommend Tanlac After Taking But Two Bottles

Mrs. R. B. Taylor, living at 3030, 31st. Street, Norfolk, Va., says she thinks the new medicine, Tanlac is very fine and worthy of praise. She took but two bottles, the last finished not long ago and she has shown improvement in every way.

She said: "I was suffering from indigestion, very bad liver, general breakdown and had practically no appetite. Gas always formed on my stomach after eating and my liver never performed its functions. I felt constantly weak and bad in general. Hearing of the benefits others were getting from Tanlac I decided to try it. I secured a bottle, finished it and got another. Since taking the two bottles my digestion is a great deal better, my liver acts perfectly, I have a splendid appetite, am stronger and I know the new medicine has benefited me in every way. I feel no hesitancy in recommending the new medicine because I think it is very good."

Thousands of people have praised Tanlac for the good received, and anyone suffering with stomach, kidney or liver ailments can very wisely take the advice of Mrs. Taylor and get a bottle today at E. S. Leadbeater Inc.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Paragraphs Picked Up Here and There Throughout the State.

Rev. Robert James McBryde, D. D., of Louisville, Ky., formerly rector of St. George's Episcopal Church Fredericksburg, and for 22 years rector of the Robert E. Lee Memorial Episcopal Church, in Lexington, died Wednesday at Raphine, Rockbridge county, where he had gone to spend the summer. He had been in declining health for some time.

While police were scouring the Richmond parks and suburban districts yesterday afternoon and O. P. Renrolds was searching Hollywood Cemetery for his wife, who, it had been reported, was contemplating suicide, Ellen Herbert, a colored maid in the Guerrant Hotel, estered the front room on the second floor of the hotel and stumbled over the body of Mrs. Rennolds. A jagged hole through her temple and a pistol that lay on the floor at her side told of spicide.

Senators Martin and Swanson, speaking for the tobacco interests of Maryland, Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee, called upon Secretary of State Lansing this week to request representations to Germany for a withdrawal of the German ban against American tobacco. Mr. Lansing, who has negotiated with Great Britain for the privilege of sending American tobacco to Germany and Austria, stated that he would do what he could to change Germany's stand. Unless Germany rescind here order against tobacco the negotiations with Great Britain will have no point and doubtless will be dropped.

Miss Josephine Murphy, daughter of William J. Murphy, the millionaire editor and owner of the Minneapolis Tribune, was killed yesterday when an automobile plunged over a steep embankment.

Two men, Kinney Kearns, and John Merrith of Abermarle, N. C., were killed yesterday afternoon near that place when they ran into a southbound train at a grade crossing.

AEROPLANES BOMB BRUSSELS

Squadron of 15 Fliers Attacks City Soon After Midnight and Are Plainly Seen by Many.

The Hague, Sept. 8—Brussels was bombarded by a squadron of 15 aeroplanes Wednesday, according to an eye-witness of the raid, who has arrived here. He said he was sitting wth friends in a hotel in the centre of the city when the squadron appeared overhead. Anti-aircraft guns immediately went into action. It was then 1 o'clock in the morning, he said, and some time previously soldiers had issued warnings for the extingushing of all lights.

The aeroplanes were seen distinctly he declared, and some flew so low that they seemed to touch the roof of the hotel, but their nationality was not made ont. Guests in the upper rooms of the hotel fled hurriedly downstairs. Intermittent bomb explosions and firing continued until daybreak. One machine, he added, was reported to have been brought down at Porte Louise, on the outskirts of the city. He said the damage done had not been ascertained when he left Brussels.

"This was the most important raid in a long while," he said. "Smaller affairs occur almost every day. These frequent air visits by entente aeroplanes hearten the Belgian people wonderfully and inevitably lead to exaggerated notions of the impending departure of the Germans."

BREAD TO GO UP A CENT.

Six Cents A Loaf Will Be Price in Baltimore.

Baltimore, Sept. 8—Six cents a loaf will be the price the people of Baltimore will be called on to pay for bread within the next week or 10 days.

No advance in the price of the 10-cent loaf be made, the loaf will be made, but the loaf that has heretofore been sold for 5 cents will be increased one cent. The wholesale price will be raised from 4 cents a loaf to 5, but the distributor is not expected to do more than pass along the one-cent increase to his customers. The bakers hold that one cent a loaf is sufficient for handling bread and any attempt on the part of the corner groceryman to add another cent as an extra profit for himself will be resisted.

NEW PENSION BILL PASSED.

Raises Amount From $12 to $20 A Month and Restores "Widows."

Washington, Sept., 8.—A bill giving to widows of officers or enlisted men who served in the Civil or Mexican Wars or the War of 1812, and who have reached the age of 70 years, pensions of $20 a month, instead of the present $12, was passed yesterday by the Senate. It already has passed the House.

Widows of Civil War soldiers dropped because of marriage to another person are restored to the roll by the bill.

The brief debate on the bill did not disclose the additional cost to the Government.

Suit for $1,000,000 was filed by Henry Ford, the Detroit automobile manufacturer, against the Chicago Tribune in the United States District Court in Chicago yesterday, Mr. Ford asks for personal damages as compensation for an editorial printed in the Tribune June 23, which, it is charged, called Ford an "anarchist." The bill charges the Tribune "sought to bring the plaintiff into public hatred, contempt, ridicule and financial injury," by publishing the editorial. The editorial, it is charged, referred to Mr. Ford as "ignorant," a "deluded human being, and an anarchistic enemy to the nation which protects him in his wealth." The editorial also charges that employes of Mr. Ford would lose their positions if they went to the border as members of the National Guards.

Yesterday morning James Haley Puckett, while at work at the Savage planing mill in Petersburg was fatally injured by a plank which "kicked back" as it was going through a planing machine. The unfortunate man died soon after. The deceased was 29 years of age.

R. G. West, of Austin, Texas, who was en route to the Virginia Military Institute, is under $500 bail in Lynchburg to answer a charge of chloroforming and robbing Mrs. Jennie A. Gordon, of $75 in a hotel in Lynchburg. West was bailed soon after his arrest by Rorer A. James, a member of the board of visitors of the Virginia Military Institute. The woman has identified West as the man who chloroformed her, but he stoutly denies the charge.
